

This is a challenging 3D jigsaw whose solving is assisted by two circular questions posed by the blue highlights at 12, 24, 27 and 32, known to naughty boys in the fifties/sixties. Conventional directions are Circular clockwise, diametric and Down unless indicated in the clue by (reverse). Note two full stops in the letter numerations, denoting an abbreviation or first letter of a name. One question starts "Does (yellow combination) and continues in a circular solution. The second is contained totally in a circular solution. Crown pinnacle crosses accommodate one letter.

Clues are presented in alphabetical order of their solutions. Deadline November 5th.

Prize: An amethyst crystal in a presentation box.

Title and name	Please print email address

1		Lunatic taking top off for publicist (5)
2		Hungarian poet, half-hearted lady's man (3)
3		Vehicle for backward drivers (3)
4		See after privates and get funny look (4-3)
5		Cleaned for princess and died in harness (3)
6		Fresh meade can cause fluid retention (5)
7		Keep love out of it – in retrospect, that's a symbol of the age (5)
8		An Englishman, a Welshman and an Irishman. plus a Peruvian, seen on tele giving wet, sticky substance to Poles (5 reverse)
9		Chilled Double Diamond (4)
10		Boudica's lot was to be in charge of eye-opening coupling before turning in (5)
11		That is extremely irksome (2)
12		I play, with Van and Nickelback, Robert Johnson's line “All my love's “ (2,4)
13		To barge in is not commonly coarse according to Boycott (7)
14		Points with anger to girl after good night with Frank (5)
15		Vocal, self-professed anarchist, could stop one joining revolutionary left wing.(6,1.)
16		Armstrong clean??!! One is brought to the boil. (5)
17		Gateman fumbled with big knob (7)
18		Obsession is an aim misplaced (5)
19		Intend to change name (4)
20		O for oblivion (7)

21		Where in France to find HE for all (2)
22		Mad keen to follow raver's lead into right little joint (1.4 reverse)
23		Old priest in church – bit of a saint perhaps (5)
24		Suppressed what John might have been (3,2)
25		Give a bollicking to arab leader on mobile while flying(7)
26		Little appreciation for old bent brassy piece (5)
27		Take off for Yorks city without having left Fife (4)
28		Mediaeval lord meets new femme fatale (5)
29		Small steeds cause problems (5)
30		Shows reserve and gives little thanks (2)
31		Books return for Tonga on the internet (2)
32		Adaptable storage for contemptible people with shocking socks (7)
33		Favoured knight might carry one from lady to signify understanding (5)
34		Play to gallery finally (3)
35		Looks to give opinions on unfaithful wives (5)
Numbers indicate alphabetical order only. They do not refer to numbers in the grid.		