This puzzle celebrates a novella first published 120 years ago. Except for 1ac (a character who does not appear in much of the story) all answers are to be modified before entry according to the theme; 16 modifications are straightforward and similar, 28 are allusive and unique, of which one is classical. Numbers in brackets refer to unmodified answers. All clue answers and grid entries are in Chambers except one entry, a proper noun; one answer and five entries only appear as abbreviations. Clues are presented in alphabetical order of their answers.
