Marking related 100th and 150th anniversaries (in August and February respectively).	Solvers must make (1,14)s to eight cells with clashing letters, leaving some non-words. Together with the same letter in the middle level in the grid, these (1,14)s will reveal a symbol of the theme. After these changes, groups of highlighted cells, each together with (1,14) and the (31ba,28to,20ac-2), will give the detail of the theme.			Clues are presented in alphabetical order of their solutions.	1 ^{22aw} Recover from morning run out (5)	2 ^{22ba-4} Votes for American, right? (4)
